Would you like the ability to read other peoples' minds? Predict the future? Give incredible demonstrations that would strike awe into any audience? In Mind - will give you this ability - guaranteed. With the popularity of the excellent American crime drama "The Mentalist" there has been a resurgence of interest in what may be termed "tricks of the mind". Patrick Jane is a mentalist who works for the California Bureau of Investigation. Week in and

week out he solves murders using his techniques of mentalism. In Mind will teach you the amazing techniques of mentalism. Do you want to be a mentalist? Mentalism or Mind Reading is the most exciting performing art. Once you dazzle your friends, family and acquaintances with a series of devastating seemingly psychic feats - they will forever hound you until you agree to give an encore. Wherever you go you will be pursued, pestered and plagued by people who yearn to see you perform. It will change your life forever. EVERY ROUTINE IN THIS BOOK WILL ALSO BE SHOWN ON VIDEO WITH AN ONLINE LINK- so as well as reading this revolutionary material - you will also have access to live performances and explanations. In essence - you are getting a free DVD! The term "psychological magic" has also become quite popular in recent years, perhaps reflecting a style of presentation in which results are achieved through the use of psychological techniques, rather than via a magician's trickery. Mentalist Derren Brown has stated on his TV show that results are obtained through a combination of "magicians' techniques, showmanship, misdirection and psychology". This is undoubtedly true, but the implication that these performers actually use more psychology than trickery (as opposed to say a children's magician or a comedy magician) is most definitely not true. All magical performers use these elements in some combination or another. The difference is that in mentalism it is implied and presented in a way - that psychology is the main methodology. In all the techniques and routines throughout this book you will convince people that you have an ability to read faces like a book. You will convince them that every mannerism - every twitch, blink, smile frown, every eye movement - every expression - gives you an insight into their minds. You will also ask them to repeat some "keywords" which will also give you an insight into their thoughts. While performing you will keep these two concepts uppermost - FACEBOOK and KEYWORDS. This will make your role as mentalist believable. You never claim to be "psychic" - you claim to be intuitive. Every face is like a book - and you have spent years developing this facebook technique. So I offer you something rather unique - In Mind - How to be a Mentalist. Prepare to learn some of the most powerful and closely guarded secrets in mentalism. You will be equipped with an arsenal of stunning and devastating mindreading effects that you can unleash on your audiences - large and small. Once you start there is no turning back. The existence you have known up until now will be changed forever.

Learn the secrets of advertising and selling by persuading people the right way. Many people wonder what mentalism is. Actually, it's a lot like magic. You make people believe that you have divine or superhuman abilities by using deception techniques to create a show, persuade, or sell. There are different kinds of mentalism, each with its pros and cons. In this guide, you'll learn about the best practices and most common ways to use this skill. Topics include: The basic things you need to know about the 5 types of mentalism. How mentalism and magic skills relate and how to practice them. Tips to read people's minds and become a professional mentalist. Mastering the right skillset and becoming a human lie detector. Reading cards, people, and other things. The definition and applications of psychometry and Extra Sensory Perception (ESP). Are you eager to learn more about the rest of the information in this book? Then go ahead and start reading!

An exploration of the world of magic that teaches the reader many tricks--including how better to understand the real world. Alex Stone--journalist and part-time conjurer--is here to amaze you. But first he had to amaze his fellow magicians. Fooling Houdini is his fascinating, revealing, and nailbiting account of his attempt to win the 23rd World Championships of Magic, the "Magic Olympics," the largest and most prestigious competition of its kind. Alex Stone managed to qualify for entry and began preparing to astonish people who astonish others for a living. It didn't help his nerves that he was placed on the bill straight after Canadian magician Shawn Farquhar, winner of more magic competitions than anyone in history. Stone's preparations and participation provide his readers with in-depth exploration of the world of magic, and magic's meaning. He spills many professional secrets, arguing that what is important is to ask questions about what lies behind the tricks: how the mind perceives the world and parses everyday experience, about how the mind works--and why sometimes it doesn't, about why people need to believe. As we become more attuned to the limits of our own perception, we become better at distinguishing reality from illusion, at reading the angles and decoding the fine print, he says. We gain intuition and understanding into how people behave. We even learn ways to influence this behavior. This makes us less susceptible to all manner of deception. It is to gain and maintain this sixth sense that Alex Stone--a schoolboy prestidigitator--has continued performing magic well into adulthood. In Fooling Houdini he takes us into that other world, populated by truly astounding characters, and leaves us with a heightened sense of awareness about the supposedly real world.

Magic is everywhere, from the big spectacle celebrity of David Copperfield and Siegfried and Roy to the quirky Penn and Teller to the spooky David Blaine and Criss Angel to the endless material on YouTube. But until now, learning it has never been easy—that's all about to change with Magic, a book that does for close-up magic what How to Grill does for barbecue. Written by charismatic young magician Joshua Jay, Magic combines expertise, photographs, and step-by-step directions showing how to perform 100 tricks. Joshua Jay took home the top prize at the World Magic Seminar (the Olympics of magic) when he was just 16 years old. Now he continues to perform magic, write about magic, eat, sleep, and breathe magic. Here, he brings all his passion and knowledge to teaching magic. Each trick is broken down into the Effect, the Secret, the Set-up, and, most important, the Performance, with lessons on what to say, how to direct the audience's attention, where to keep your hands, and so on. (In other words, how to be smart about the things your audience is surprisingly clueless about.) Here are the Ten Greatest Card Tricks; tricks to dazzle a dinner date; tricks to perform for the boss (poke a hole through his shirt, then magically mend it); tricks especially for kids; and even tricks for an audience in another state—with "Australian Self-Help," you can find a participant's chosen card over the phone. It's the Aha! book for a subject whose time has come.

The inside of Derren Brown's head is a strange and mysterious place. Now you can climb inside and wander around. Find out just how Derren's mind works, see what motivates him and discover what made him the weird and wonderful person he is today. Obsessed with magic and illusions since childhood, Derren's life to date has been an extraordinary journey and here, in Confessions of a Conjuror, he allows us all to join him on a magical mystery tour - to the centre of his brain... Taking as his starting point the various stages of a conjuring trick he's performing in a crowded restaurant, Derren's endlessly engaging narrative wanders through subjects from all points of the compass, from the history of magic and the fundamentals of psychology to the joys of internet shopping and the proper use of Parmesan cheese. Brilliant, hilarious and entirely unlike anything else you have ever read before, Confessions of a Conjuror is also a complete and utter joy.

The internationally bestselling guide to "mind-reading" by influencing those around you via non-verbal communication, from human psychology expert Henrik Fexeus. How would you like to know what the people around you are thinking? Do you want to network like a pro, persuade your boss to give you that promotion, and finally become the life of every party? Now, with Henrik Fexeus's expertise, you can. The Art of Reading Minds teaches you everything you need to know in order to become an expert at mind-reading. Using psychology-based skills such as non-verbal communication, reading body language, and using psychological influence, Fexeus explains how readers can find out what another person thinks and feels- and consequently control that person's thoughts and beliefs. Short, snappy chapters cover subjects such as contradictory signs and what they mean, how people flirt without even knowing it, benevolent methods of suggestion and undetectable influence, how to plant and trigger emotional states, and how to perform impressive mind-reading party tricks. Fexeus gives readers practical (and often fun) examples of how to effectively mind-read others and use this information, benevolently, both in personal and professional settings.

It has been a few years since the publication of Modern Mentalism with its 3 Volumes and little time since the publication of Mentalism from A to Z. In these volumes, techniques, psychology, tricks, ethics and much more have been explained about the world of mentalism. This world is always immense as a heritage of creativity for which I wanted to publish this new guide with a different approach: not to mention particular techniques but making available to the reader only tricks of mentalism to be carried out immediately. The aim is to create a real practical repertoire, to be performed immediately! The proposed effects are simple, effective and easy to learn and execute. This manual does not talk about psychological mentalism, or scientific, PNL, hypnosis, etc. but you will find methods that you will learn by performing the magic effects and some of which are quite unusual and therefore deserve to be known along with the more classic principles of the Mentalism. The presentations are not specifically addressed, as their importance is vital for the tricks but, in my opinion, it is too personal to be "taught" so a few indications were provided only on how to present each effect, for example on the specific topic, (mind-reading, reading non-verbal language, etc.); leaving the interpreter free to adapt or create his own presentation based on his individual uniqueness as an artist and person. The time has come to end the interminable rhetoric and to take action, or rather to tricks! In this ebook you find: Introduction Day 1: Guess what time is it! Day 2: Do you mind reading or do you magic tricks? Day 3: Subliminal response Day 4: Random words Day 5: We bet that I guess your card! Day 6: I know which color you're going to choose Day 7: I know which color sequence you will choose Day 8: I can read your mind Day 9: I know what Grandma's name is it Day 10: Bet with the spectators! Day 11: Thought at a distance Day 12: Colours association Day 13: Concentrate, I will tell you the serial number of the banknote you have in your pocket! Day 14: I know which postcard you will choose! Day 15: An impossible mind-reading! Day 16: Your 10 € have this serial number Day 17: Now stop joking! Day 18: See with the mind Day 19: No, that's not just possible! Day 20: What drink do you want? Day 21: The Book of Secrets Day 22: Burned thoughts Day 23: Non-verbal language Day 24: Capture emotions Day 25: Smell like victory Day 26: The mystery of the banknotes Day 27: Mental emotions Day 28: Guards and thieves Day 29: Telepathy with names Day 30: Predicting a thought card Day 31: Impossible numerical prevision! Why would someone write a book on Mind Control? Because as much as we try to elevate ourselves above being human animals we are, in fact, animals. We are subject to the wants and desires of any being with a genome and vertebrae. To rise above that is an admirable and a task we should take on as a worthy spiritual endeavor. But to deny that we are, truly, animals is to lie to ourselves. We must deal with people who may not be so enlightened advanced as we are. They may desire what we have and be se-cretely filled with envy and contempt. The worst event is to have these suspicions fulfilled and then be pulled down into the politics of man. Do we deny that it's happening and hope others will be touched by our honesty and good will enough to change? Or do we drop our highest spiritual ideals and play their game? I would like to suggest a radically different strategy. Take the game of manipulation and Mind Control and make it a part of your spirituality.
